

Implementation Consultant Job Description

Title Implementation Consultant

Reports to Director of Operations

Europe's leading Retail Data Analytics Company requires an Implementation Consultant.

Job Overview

IntelliQ require an Implementation Consultant to build world class retail analytic solutions using enterprise level databases and their own industry leading software. Consultants will be expected to take the lead in the project, working with the customer and internal resources to build a solution which meets the demands of the customer.

IntelliQ customers are situated worldwide and so travel is expected internationally as well as within the UK.

Core Skills

- Good understanding of Oracle and/or MS SQL Server
- Excellent customer facing skills
- Ability to work independently
- Project Management Experience
- Experience with EPOS data
- Experience specifying business requirements
- Training internal & external customers
- Experience specifying/building business intelligence reports/analytical reports

Desirable Skills

- End to end experience of building/designing/scoping ETL Solutions
- Experience of building/designing/scoping Data Warehouses
- European language other than English
- Installation of software applications
- Experience of retail fraud analysis
- Excellent Excel and good MS Office
- Retail data experience

Employee Name:.....Signature.....Date.....

Line Manager:.....Signature.....Date.....